

U.S. Business Law Academy

Columbia Law School invites applications to the 2016 edition of its U.S. Business Law Academy for foreign-trained law students and practitioners. The program offers an engaging educational and cultural experience, with select topics in U.S. legal institutions and business law taught by preeminent scholars from Columbia's world renowned faculty.

The Academy provides an accessible introduction to the Socratic Method, one of the foundations of U.S. legal education, and presentations by senior Law School administrators on LLM programs and international career strategies. Overall, the Academy is excellent preparation for those considering furthering their studies in a leading global graduate program. Students will also enjoy social and networking events, as well as visits to professional and cultural sites in New York City.

Early Bird discounts for applications submitted by March 1, 2016. Group discounts for 6 or more participants.

COURSES AND FACULTY*

- Introduction to U.S. Legal Institutions
Prof. Alexandra Carter, Clinical Professor of Law; Director of Clinical Education
- Corporations and Corporate Governance
Prof. Robert Jackson, Professor of Law; Co-Director, Ira M. Millstein Center
- Deals: An Introduction to the Law and Economics of Transactions
Prof. David Schizer, Dean Emeritus and the Harvey R. Miller Professor of Law and Economics

When:	Sunday, July 10 through Friday, July 29, 2016
Where:	Columbia University, New York City
Who:	Foreign-trained law students and practitioners
Cost:	$7,000 for tuition and housing (discounts for early applicants and groups)
Contact:	CLS Office of International Programs at IntlProgramsManager@law.columbia.edu
Details:	Further information is available on the Columbia Law School website

* Projected as of November, 2015 and subject to change.